

Correspondence.

Oregon, Mo., June 22, 1857.

Mr. Editor:—After a week's repose from the stirring effects of the charge made by "L. J. L. and the Ladies generally," upon my honorable body, I have succeeded in recovering my astonished senses, and find myself upon the track again. I feel very feeble, though, and venture forth with a palpitating heart and quivering pen; therefore, if my ideas become rather zigzaggy, you must excuse me, and attribute the deviations to my nervous excitability.

I do not know that I can blame L. J. L. and her train for the disasters that followed this collision, for I was "running out of time," and not paying much attention to my business. However, the circumstances have set my brain to work, and I have concluded to turn speculator on the strength of it, and see if I cannot guile the people about as fast as some of the other swindlers.

I propose to organize a joint stock company, under the name and style of T. Fiddlesticks Pileser & Co., with a capital of 15 cents—to buy tobacco with. The operations to be conducted by the company, will be the negotiations of marriages. The company will undertake the cases of unmarried persons of both sexes, and conduct them from the first dawn of love, through all the tedious, soft, romantic and flat scenes that generally occur, to the ultimate hope of all—marriage. They will make love, conduct the courtship, pop the question in most elegant style, and interpose the whole with all the agonizing and exasperating exclamations and appeals necessary, regulated to suit the disposition of parties. They will also ask the "old folks," and if they do not consent, run the young ones off, and have them married, and have all done on very reasonable terms. You can insert this in your advertising columns, and request all the papers in the Universe to copy, and send the paper, marked, to my address. Now, then, all ye withered specimens of humanity, who are too timid to make known your wants, come along—drop a few lines to T. Fiddlesticks Pileser & Co., describing the size, age, and complexion that would suit you best; also, make known your age, height and color. It is necessary that all the particulars should be given, for the company do not wish to impose too much upon their customers. It is considered sufficient that the public should be gulled into the belief that the existence of such an establishment is a necessity. It may be well to state that a few preliminaries are necessary, viz: If the person be a "green one," he must have his "eye-teeth cut," and the rough corners knocked off, by being subjected to the perils of a church-door gambol a few times. After he has learned to receive the "mitten" in the most elegant manner, he will then be considered sufficiently brazen to venture his full length in a love scrape.

If the person prove, on examination, to be too sharp, it will be necessary to take him down a "peg or two," to ensure his safety. Or if he be dull, dry and prosy, his feelings must receive an injection of the "oil of affection," mixed with a proportionate quantity of the "milk of human kindness."

There, now, just as I've got it all fixed, primed and ready to fire off, a notice is placed before me, that a marriage has taken place just outside of town; and just now another wedding party has passed down street. Well, that's my confounded luck—too slow in the conception of ideas. While I have been forming my plan of operations, these chaps have succeeded in popping the question, and have already slipped out of the pale of backslapdoor. Well, never mind; there are plenty of them left yet. I'll set my traps, and wait for business.

It has been so long since a marriage has taken place in Oregon, that the greatest excitement prevails when it is even hinted that certain youngsters may perchance take a "sort o' sneak-in" notion "after each other. It cannot be wondered at, then, that when a wedding party passed through town, every body, (including the dogs), should be astir, all agape, with wondering mouths distended, all exclaiming—"I declare!"—"Just as I expected!"—"Who'd a thought it!"—"They need not a been so shy about it!"—"Wonder if it really is so?" Well, I never." Bow, wow, wow, wow. It is a wonderful event, Mr. Editor. Men drop their books and papers, congregate on corners, and with hands crammed deep into their breeches pockets, gravely discuss the matter. It is a serious thing—so the speculators consider it, for there's one source from whence golden streams flow, for ribbons, extra fineries, and gewgaws that are used to entrap gullible men, completely dried up. The dried up, gruff old bachelor's eye wistfully follows the train, and a secret wish that 'twas him enters his heart. Envious wretch! his miserable condition will not allow him to view with pleasure the happiness of others. Even the goitling-faced stripling is out, and in the fondness of his heart indulges in dreams of the time when he shall be driving out of town in such a glorious fix!

It has all passed, and the too-ri-oo-ri-oo-bang-whang minstrels, after exerting themselves wonderfully in tuning up their cow-bells, tin-pans, brass-kettles, horse-fiddles, and broken tongued jews-harps, are too late. The birds have flown, and they will be compelled, like the venerable Uncle Ned, at his demise, to hang up their musical instruments, and wait for a more seasonable opportunity.

Yours, until there's a different arrangement, T. FIDDLESTICKS PILESER.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.—The Democracy of Virginia have elected the entire delegation to Congress. The following is a list of the members chosen:

First District—M. R. H. Garnett.
Second District—J. S. Millon.
Third District—John S. Caskie.
Fourth District—Wm. O. Goode.
Fifth District—Thomas Beckett.
Sixth District—Paula Powell.
Seventh District—Wm. Smith.
Eighth District—C. J. Faulkner.
Ninth District—John Letcher.
Eleventh District—A. G. Jenkins.
Twelfth District—H. A. Edmondson.
Thirteenth District—G. W. Hopkins.

In the Tenth District, the contest is yet in doubt between W. M. Dunnington, Distributionist, and Sherrard Clemens, Anti-Distributionist—both Democrats. The Representatives elected in the other Districts, are all Anti-Distributionists.

MEMPHIS, June 5.
Gen. Walker arrived this morning, at an unexpectedly early hour, and there were consequently but few people to receive him. Col. Hayne, of this city, welcomed him to his native State, and denounced Vanderbilt and the New York press as being the cause of his defeat, and not the Costa Ricans. Walker and Lockridge responded in substance the same as at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1.
Walker left on the Woodford, this evening, for Washington, via Louisville, by advice of Soule, who arrived yesterday.

At the municipal election to-day, no opposition was made to the American ticket.

American National Council.

LOUISVILLE, June 2.

E. B. Bartlett, President of the National Council called Convention to order at 11 o'clock. In absence of Secretary, Blanton Duncan, of Ky., was appointed recording Secretary pro tem. The following Committee on Credentials was appointed: T. C. Ware, Ohio; W. W. Duncanson, Ill.; F. Schley, Md.; G. M. Heilinger, Mo.; A. Baldwin, Conn.; A. M. C. Smith, N. Y.; W. F. Switzer, Mo. Adjourned to 3 P. M.

American Convention called to order by E. B. Bartlett, President of the National Council at 11 o'clock. A Committee on Credentials was appointed. Adjourned till 3 P. M. On reassembling the Committee on Credentials reported the list as far as completed.

Erastus Brooks then addressed the Convention; he belittled the re-union after the recent defeat calculated to do much good. He also paid high compliment to Kentucky; declared the intentions of the Americans of New York, to adhere firmly to the party until its principles were successful. Said all other organizations based on fanaticism were counselled with a review of the mission of the American party.

Mon. Anthony Kennedy, of Maryland, next addressed the Convention. He said the Maryland delegation came here with the firm determination to discard all sectional feelings and prejudices, to set their faces against every question calculated to distract and divide the people of the different States, and to give in Maryland allegiance new to pure Americanism.

R. W. Thompson, of Indiana, attacked the Democratic party—declared Republicans sought to put Americans on a level with negroes, and the Democrats seek to place them on a level with pauper laborers of foreign countries. Depreciated introduction into the National platform of the slightest allusion to slavery. Better that every negro be blotted from the land, than the Union be severed on account of dispute about the value of a slave.

Erastus Brooks moved the appointment of a committee of thirteen to report resolutions for an address for the consideration of the convention, the President having appointed a committee.

Schley of Maryland moved that all resolutions of a political character be referred to said committee; after debate by Buckingham of N. Y., Wood of Brooklyn, and Jones of Syracuse, who all opposed the resolutions, it was indefinitely postponed.

Ware, of Ohio, moved the committee of thirteen be instructed to mature and report a general plan for re-organizing the party throughout the Union. Adopted. Adjourned till ten tomorrow.

LOUISVILLE, June 3.

The Council met at 10 A. M. A letter was read from A. J. Donelson and other distinguished members of the party. An address was adopted going into a detailed discussion of the American question, repudiating squatter sovereignty and declaring among other things that the decisions of the Supreme Court must be enforced.

Erastus Brooks submitted a plan for organization, abolishing National, State, and local councils, with all the ceremonies now in use, and to admit all legal voters who support Americanism.

After warm debate this was referred to committee who reported resolutions of the American party in each State, Territory, and District of Columbia, authorized to adopt such plans for organization as each respectfully may think best suited to views in the several localities.

E. B. Bartlett, of Kentucky, and Erastus Brooks, of New York, re-elected President and Vice President unanimously. James W. Stephens re-elected Secretary of the National Council; Thos. C. Ware, of Ohio, elected Treasurer, and Blanton Duncan, of Ky., Corresponding Secretary.

Brooks reported a series of resolutions. In the course of some remarks, Cunningham, of Missouri, stated that the Missourians knew and acknowledged that Kansas will be a Free State.

LOUISVILLE, June 4.
After warm debates on resolutions, during which Hillyer and Shackelford of Mississippi, strongly urged the adoption of resolutions as moved by committee.

Gen. Scroggs, of Buffalo, moved as a substitute for the whole report the platform adopted at Philadelphia, in 1856. This was adopted and report of committee thrown overboard.

E. T. Wood, of Brooklyn, offered resolutions expressing the gratitude of the American party towards the young men for co-operation in the last campaign. Adopted unanimously. Vote of thanks then adopted to officers of Council, and citizens of Louisville, and Convention adjourned sine die.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS IN KENTUCKY.—The Democrats of Kentucky have completed their Congressional nominations. We give below a list of the candidates:

First District—Hon. Henry C. Burnett.
Second District—Hon. Samuel Peyton.
Third District—Joseph H. Lewis.
Fourth District—Hon. A. G. Talbot.
Fifth District—Hon. J. H. Jewett.
Sixth District—Hon. S. M. Elliott.
Seventh District—Thomas H. Holt.
Eighth District—Hon. James B. Clay.
Ninth District—Hon. J. C. Mason.
Tenth District—Hon. J. W. Stevenson.

A FAMOUS HORSE.—Cossack, the horse Captain Nolan rode when he was killed at Balaklava, (in the famous infamous charge), is now the property of a gentleman of Cincinnati, and arrived in that city last week. He is a grey Arab stallion, six years old, and fourteen hands high. His groom, who came with him, is Edward Sleeper, one of the eleven survivors of a regiment of 900 British soldiers who landed in Gallipoli, in February, 1854. He was at Alma, Balaklava, Inkermann, and the siege of Sevastopol, and looks, it is said, as if he was made of oak, locumvite and iron.

"Old Creole," of Columbia County, Wisconsin, is, according to the note of his baptisms in his church records of Montreal, 130 years old, and he distinctly remembers a period of 117 years. He married at New Orleans a hundred years ago, and is now living with a grandchild upwards of sixty years old. He is still hale and hearty, and does not appear to be over 70.

GOVERNOR OF TEXAS.—General Sam. Houston has declared himself an independent candidate for Governor. He addressed the citizens of Brazos on the 5th, and spoke at Galveston on the 18th inst. It is said he will canvass the entire State.

Brigham Young in a recent sermon to the Mormons, told them it was more "important to raise saints than to raise crops." At the present time Brigham seems more intent on "raising the devil" than anything else.

Kansas—Brown's Letter asking Brewerton to Slander Robinson.

LOUISVILLE, June 2.

The telegraph refers to a letter from Brown, of Kansas, to Brewerton, the correspondent of the New York Herald, calling on the latter to testify to Brown's bravery, and trying to bribe Brewerton, by promise of future favor, to slander Gov. Robinson. The following is Brown's letter:

LAWRENCE, May 13, 1857.
Col. BREWERTON: By the next Herald of Freedom you will observe that a severe fight has sprung up between Chas. Robinson and myself, Robinson charging me with an attempt to sell out the party to Gov. Shannon, on condition of my being released from prison.

I wish you to bear in mind the firmness I exhibited at Westport, and my frankness, at all times, in avowing my sentiments when surrounded by what appeared great personal danger. I wish you to converse with Gov. Shannon, and you will get a frank denial of anything of the character having transpired between myself and Shannon. By articles in my paper I think you will observe evidence of a disposition to sell out on the other side. Place me under obligations to you by presenting Chas. Robinson before the public as he is. The day of his administration has closed in Kansas. He stands convicted of being an unmitigated liar, and when the evidence shall be closed he will appear before the American people as the fruitful cause of much of the strife and contention which has deformed our goody country.

Watch the developments! I tell the facts in regard to him, and any favor I can render you in return, consistent with my position as a Free State man, or which you will demand as a gentleman, is at your service.

Very respectfully yours, G. W. BROWN.
Brewerton, though having Robinson as all pro-slavery men there do, is too cunning to be caught. He even seizes the occasion after the well-known practice of the New York Herald, to claim credit for honesty and impartiality. From his long letter in reply, we make the following extracts; they serve to show his political views:

"In the first place, whilst I reiterate my desire to serve you, I must be allowed to state that it is utterly out of my power to make my letters to the press, the medium of a personal attack upon any individual, however obnoxious in a political point of view. As the Special Correspondent of the New York Herald in Kansas, it is my duty to supply that journal with current news—indeed my instructions confine me to such matters solely, and were it otherwise, I have no right, and less desire, to prostitute my pen to the injury of any man in his private capacity. Moreover, I know too little of Doctor Charles Robinson as an individual, to comment upon his personal character. His political course and opinions are public property, and you cannot disapprove of them more strongly than myself."

"And now, sir, having fully replied to your letter, permit me to express my surprise that, with your avowed belief in relation to the political course of so distinguished a leader of the Republican party as 'Governor' Charles Robinson, you should continue the publication in the Herald of Freedom, of a history of past difficulties which are not only deeply to be regretted, but have now become perfectly worthless—even as a basis for a rotten and law-defying political organization. Sir, the revival of such memories at the present juncture, can serve no good purpose, and may do much harm."

From the coarse tone of Brown's letter, it might be supposed that he desired to provoke a duel; but though a brave looking man, six feet high, he is known in the Territory as the "biggest coward in Kansas."

LANCASTER, Pa., June 3.
The Straight American Convention, to-day nominated by acclamation Isaac Hazlehurst, of Philadelphia, for Governor, and Jacob Broom, of Philadelphia, and Jasper E. Beatty, of Allegheny, Judges of Supreme Court, after a long contest and great confusion. Mr. Linderman, of Berks, was nominated for Canal Commissioner. A ratification meeting will be held here to-night.

Gov. Geary's name was not presented to the Convention, he having sent a despatch declining the Governorship.

WASHINGTON, June 4.
Private despatches received here from St. Louis, announcing the safe arrival of D. H. Barr, Surveyor General of Utah.

Fourteen or fifteen bills have been offered for carrying overland California mails, but no decisive action has yet been taken upon the subject. It will be a matter for the consideration of the Cabinet, who will determine as to the starting point.

WASHINGTON, June 10.
There has yet been no Governor or other officers appointed for Utah.

Official and private advices assure the Administration that there is no probability whatever that the present peace of Kansas will be interrupted, and that the pending controversy promises a happy termination.

Rapp's colony of German Communists, at Economy, Pa., is in a state of gradual decline. Fifty-two years ago, it counted 800 persons; now there are but 800, most of them old. Half the houses are vacant.

Great Excitement on the Frontier!
BORDER RUFFIANS ABOUT TO INVADE KANSAS!
BY late advices from Oregon, Holt County, Missouri, we learn that KAUCHER & JESTER are about to invade our peaceful borders, armed to the teeth with CHAIRS, BEDSTEDS, TABLES, CRIBS, and a great many other household conveniences, so tedious to mention, which they expect to sell at fair prices, and for Cash. They will spare neither age nor sex, rich nor poor, (they will trust the honest poor, and take the money from the rich,) high nor low. No political or religious creed can be taken as an excuse for not purchasing their work, as it is as good as any in the country, and is more durable than all the furniture ever shipped from St. Louis or Cincinnati. The people have been humbugged with Eastern trash long enough, and it is high time now that they open their eyes, and "knock under" to KAUCHER & JESTER.

All classes of society—men of all conditions, from the cradle to the grave, will find it to their advantage to call upon them for whatever they may want.

KAUCHER & JESTER
Are prepared to execute all orders for Coffins, with neatness and dispatch.
Job Work of every description done to order.
Damaged Furniture of every description repaired.
They may be found at their Head Quarters, near O. & Watson's Steam Mill, Oregon, Mo. June 4, '57, if.

Fourth of July Celebration.
AT WHITE CLOUD, K. T.
THERE will be, on the FOURTH DAY OF JULY, 1857, a LARGE SALE OF LOTS, and a FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION, at the above mentioned City. General DONATY will do honor to the occasion. All of the citizens of Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, and "the rest of mankind," are invited to be present.

Northern Kansas and Southern Nebraska comprise one of the richest, most beautiful and healthful sections of country in the Union—indeed, no portion of the globe excels the above region in loveliness, and in natural advantages and resources.

White Cloud, having a fine site, a splendid Rock Landing, and being the most Waterbury and accessible point on the Missouri River, in the Territory, must command the trade and business of this rich and extensive region. It is the Key to all of Northern Kansas and Southern Nebraska; and such being the case, it is destined to be, at no distant day, a large City.

The Proprietors of the City have, at the recent Land Sales, procured, by purchase of the General Government, a perfect title to the land embraced in the town site, and good and undisturbed titles will be given, on the day of sale, to all who may purchase Lots.

Terms of Sale—One-third Cash, and the remainder in six months. The interest on the deferred balance will be paid in advance. An excellent Band of Music has been engaged for the occasion, and a Free Barbecue will be served up.

By order of the Directors of the WHITE CLOUD CITY COMPANY.

BORDER RUFFIANS ABOUT TO INVADE KANSAS!
BY late advices from Oregon, Holt County, Missouri, we learn that KAUCHER & JESTER are about to invade our peaceful borders, armed to the teeth with CHAIRS, BEDSTEDS, TABLES, CRIBS, and a great many other household conveniences, so tedious to mention, which they expect to sell at fair prices, and for Cash. They will spare neither age nor sex, rich nor poor, (they will trust the honest poor, and take the money from the rich,) high nor low. No political or religious creed can be taken as an excuse for not purchasing their work, as it is as good as any in the country, and is more durable than all the furniture ever shipped from St. Louis or Cincinnati. The people have been humbugged with Eastern trash long enough, and it is high time now that they open their eyes, and "knock under" to KAUCHER & JESTER.

All classes of society—men of all conditions, from the cradle to the grave, will find it to their advantage to call upon them for whatever they may want.
